INFOSYS SPRINGBOARD--MOU WITH CARPORATE WORLD

Digital literacy is the need of the hour in India be it within the workforce, inside companies, with students and with communities. In the next five years, more than half the global labor force will need to start reskilling and reinventing how they earn a living. The average person entering the workforce in 2030 will reboot their skills eight to 10 times throughout their working life. At Sevasadan Arts, Commerce & Science Senior College, Nagpur an opportunity has knocked the door to create frameworks for strengthening and upgrading people's capabilities to match the evolving needs of the economy and society. Infosys Springboard is an initiative in that direction.

The College has made a Memorandum of Understanding (M.O.U.) between Infosys Ltd. (including its Subsidiaries and Affiliates) and Sevasadan Shikshan Sanstha, Nagpur. The Infosys Springboard empowers

a. Students to "learn by doing" and develop holistically for emerging job and career opportunities.

b. Teachers to better collaborate with learners on their skilling journey using the Springboard's engagement features.

Teachers play a pivotal role in enabling and preparing the students for their career aspirations. The faculty members of the Sevasadan Arts, Commerce & Science Senior College can make use of Infosys's expertise and Springboard platform to amplify the impact.

Following are the some of the Best Practices envisaged through this initiative.

1. Improving the standards of Digital Education.
2. Relevant Content with experiential learning.
3. Summer internship using Infosys Springboard.
4. Integration of Infosys Springboard courses in Assessments.
5. Mapping of skill & job-oriented courses using Springboard.
